

Enterprise, education & skills

The North of England is a hot bed of enterprising activity, and O Communications is at the heart of promoting what's happening within the enterprise, education and skills agendas. We are currently, or have worked with almost every enterprise organisation in the region, from representing our region for Enterprise UK to working with Young Enterprise North East to encourage businesses to engage with young people in our schools.

